The Slammers have not lost a game with a lower score in 2013. State Force scored 31 points with quarter-time siren at the hands of the fans to fall behind by 20 points. The Slammers started the second quarter with a high-energy, high-fives session, which got momentum from the opening 13 seconds of the game. Within the opening seconds, the Slammers jumped to a 12-2 lead. State Force then scored 13 straight points including three three-pointers to get to 15 points and the lead 8-15. State Force rushed into the lead again with a four-pointer of their own to tie the game at 17-6. The Slammers then made three straight foul shots to get the lead back, 19-17. After not scoring in almost two minutes, the Slammers made sure to spread the wealth across the entire team. Noyce scored a three-pointer, a steal, and a layup to give the Slammers a three-point lead again. Freshmen guard Chantell Tolbert and guard Rebekah Hoag made three-pointers to give the Slammers a 26-17 lead. After the Slammers made another three-pointer, the State Force lead dwindled to 10 points. The Slammers earned their 10th point with a six-pointer and a foul shot. Freshman forward Chaka Stanley then capped off her strong first half with a steal and a layup to give the Slammers a 36-22 lead at the half. Stanley scored 11 points and pulled down 11 rebounds to lead all players. State Force led at the end of the first half as State Force held the Slammers scoreless from the free throw line and made all eight of their free throws. The second half began with the same offensive strategy. State Force scored 11 points on their first five possessions. The Slammers made it back-to-back three-pointers with a trey from Tolbert, giving the Slammers a 10-point lead at the 13:46 mark. But as State Force scored 12 points, the Slammers missed one layup and failed to come to

]]> to Optimize Your Sitespeed 27 Jan 2015 17:57:40 +0000 your site to load is a pretty basic need for any modern website, but there are a few things you can do to speed it up. We've all seen sites that load ultra fast and then you go to one that takes forever to load and you wonder what the hell they did to help it load. There are a few tricks to help your site load quickly for your users. Setup your Google site speed insights Google has a handy page in their webmaster tools that gives you an idea of how fast your site loads. It's possible your site isn't scoring as well as it should and you may need to do some optimization to make it load faster. You can find these under the "google page speed insights" tab on your Google Webmaster Tools account. If you're a large business or site I highly recommend using Google Speed Insights, which is a tool they have specifically designed for small to medium businesses who want to test how fast a site loads. You can get a free trial here. Get a sitemap A sitemap is a page that helps Google understand what you have on your website. This is a free tool from Google that helps you structure your sitemap so that Google can retrieve the information from your site easily. When you get to the first page of your sitemap, make sure you have descriptive titles and headings which include keywords for each page. Google specifically recommends using sitemaps for mobile responsive sites as it helps them understand what pages of your site are used the most and which pages they should prioritize to load first. For an example of what a sitemap looks like, look at the code below.

. Enjoy the pleasure of a real basketball scoreboard from KA-SOFT, the leading manufacturer of professional scoreboards and other electronic devices. The VSPRO209BK is priced right at $9.99. The VSPRO209 offers:..Microsoft's VR platform officially supports more than 50 games, including AltspaceVR, LostWinds, Superhot, and Overload. While these are non-exclusive titles, they all feature Microsoft's Mixed Reality Portal SDK for Windows Mixed Reality systems. The news about the new beta release is the result of a flood of new partnerships, as Microsoft merged its fitness and gaming divisions into the newly created mixed reality team in February. Since then, Microsoft has enjoyed a slew of partnerships, including the aforementioned AltspaceVR. The Mixed Reality Portal SDK gives developers a way to access and incorporate in-game assets into a mixed reality experience. The mixed reality environment is presented through a Windows Mixed Reality headset and controller, and "can also include an external Windows Mixed Reality Display". Microsoft will release a new dev portal for the Windows Mixed Reality Portal SDK, which will bring compatibility for VR environments. The portal will also include Unity and Unreal Engine compatibility.Davis County hires recruiter for K-12 schools This is an archived article that was published on sltrib.com in 2013, and information in the article may be outdated. It is provided only for personal research purposes and may not be reprinted. A recruiter has been hired to recruit principals and assistant principals for Davis County schools. The county announced the hiring of Doug McGee as its recruiter in a news release. McGee has 16 years of recruiting experience, most of it in the Utah education system. The release said McGee will be responsible for assisting school superintendents, chancellors and assistant chancellors with recruiting and retaining staff in the K-12 sector. McGee will be placed in an office provided by the Davis County School District and will be eligible to earn commissions. All Davis County schools are hiring for principals, assistant principals and support staff in grades K-3.Search This Blog Connecting with a Silver Cord The NFL playoffs are here, and it's time to start thinking about which teams we will watch win it all next year.
